

Wyborney life-time resident

Lloyd Wyborney was a life-time resident of Wilbur. He passed away February 12 at Lincoln Memorial Hospital, Davenport. Lloyd was born June 11, 1908, to J. R. and Lillian Wyborney and attended the Columbia School near his home and also attended Wilbur High School.

He was a member of the Wilbur Lutheran Church, a past member of the American Legion Post of Wilbur and a member of the Albert J. Gyrofi Post, V.F.W., of Wilbur. He served as a fireman with the Wilbur volunteer fire department for many years.

Lloyd was a master in the field of mechanics and served as maintenance mechanic and bus driver for the Wilbur school bus fleet for a number of years. He worked as a mechanic for the Wilbur Graingrowers Warehouse Company for many years until he started farming. During World War II he served as an aviation mechanic with the Army Air Corps in Lemoore, California.

On September 26, 1934, he was married to Oline Krause in Spokane.

Lloyd will be remembered as a good husband, father, grandfather, brother and a good friend to all. He was a person who loved life, a friendly and outgoing person who enjoyed sharing his skill and knowledge of mechanics.

He enjoyed such activities as farming, fishing, hunting and flying. He had retired from full time farming at the time of his death. He was preceded in death by his parents, one brother and one sister.

Lloyd is survived by his wife Oline at their home in Wilbur; one son, Robert Wyborney, three grandchildren, Benjamin, Susan and Peter; by four brothers, his twin brother, Lester, Joe, Jr., and Rex, Sr., of Wilbur and Harold of Phoenix, Arizona; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services were conducted Wednesday, February 15, from the Wilbur Lutheran Church by Pastor A. F. Gerstmann, with the Robertson Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. "Rock of Ages" was sung by the congregation and "Bless Be the Tie That Binds" by Frank Hanson. Military rites were performed at the Wilbur Cemetery by the Albert Gyrofi Post No. 6268, V.F.W. Palbearers were Boyd Angstrom, Ray Portch, Jim Lane, Frank Kunz, Randy Krause and Clyde Bishop from the V.F.W. Post.

Friends and relatives gathered at the Lloyd Wyborney home for refreshments following the committal service.
