

ANTHONY WYBORNY AND SANDRA HINRICHSSEN MARRIED JANUARY 8

Old Stone Church at Rock Falls was the setting for the candlelight wedding uniting Anthony Wyborny and Sandra Hinrichsen on January 8.

Reverend Jerry Ulin was the officiating clergyman. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hinrichsen of Rock Falls and Mr. and Mrs. George Wyborny of Plymouth.

Dee Hinrichsen was her sister's friend of honor and Cindy Stanley, friend of the couple, was bridesmaid. Attending the groom was his brother Michael Wyborny as best man, and Ronald Jost, friend of the couple.

Ringbearers were Kurt Hinrichsen, nephew of the bride, and Aaron Weick, nephew of the groom.

The bride was attired in an A-line gown with lace sleeves and lay-inlay bodice, which she had fashioned herself. Her attendants wore pink dresses with white and burgundy inlay, covered with a bellsleeved jacket, also made by the bride.

The groom and his attendants wore burgundy tuxedos with pink ruffled shirts and tie holders wore burgundy velvet jackets, fashioned by the groom's mother, and plaid trousers.

The bride is a graduate of the Nora Springs-Rock Falls High School and Spencer School of Business, and is employed at Chuck Busch Insurance. The groom is also a graduate of the Nora Springs-Rock Falls High School and North Iowa Community College and is employed as a carpenter by Carmany Construction.

The couple is residing at 311 10th N.E., Mason City.
