

Rice, Wyborny wed in summer rites

A garden wedding amid God's beautiful handiwork was the setting for the marriage of Rochelle Louise Wyborny and Russel Layne Rice.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Wyborny, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rice.

Pastor Philip Lizzi of the Sandpoint Seventh-Day Adventist Church officiated at the Aug. 10 wedding.

The bride was escorted by her father down a garden path to the groom, who stood before a backdrop of white trellises laden with wild sweet peas and white hydrangeas.

For the wedding ceremony, the bride wore a white chiffon floor-length gown, with embroidered floral lace over the fitted bodice. The gown's train was softly ruffled.

Completing the bride's attire was a two-tiered fingertip veil with a floral-lace cap adorned with seed pearls.

The bride's attendants, Rachel Hayes and Wendi and Misti Drumwright, wore matching voile print dresses.

The groom's attendants were Ben Rice, brother of the groom, and Curtis Wyborny, brother of the bride.

A luncheon reception on the lawn was served following the ceremony.
