

The Wedding

Emma Sedlacek and Joseph Vyborny
were united in marriage
on April 15, 1929
at
Tabor, South Dakota

CHILDREN & GRANDCHILDREN
Joseph and Janet (Hausman) Vyborny
Joseph, Sharon, Michael,
Jennifer and Mary Beth

Jean Kay Vyborny

50th Anniversary

CELEBRATED GOLDEN WEDDING. 1885-1915

Last Sunday afternoon and evening the farm house of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vyborny was the scene of a happy gathering. The occasion being the 40th anniversary of their wedding, the event being prepared and arranged by their children and their families. Aside of their children and their families a large number of relatives, friends and neighbors were present to pay their respects to the aged couple. An appropriate talk was given by J. A. Dvorak following which those present partook of a splendid dinner and in the evening of the supper and also midnight repast.

Mr. and Mrs. Vyborny received many appropriate presents which they appreciate very much, more because of their sentimental worth and as tokens of sincere friendship.

It will not be amiss to recall a page of history in connection with this rare occasion. The Vyborny family consisting of the parents and four sisters of Mr. Vyborny and also his grandfather, came to this country in 1868 and located in Ely, Iowa. In the spring of 1870 they set out with a span of oxen from Ely for this state and his father located on the homestead 1 1/2 miles north of Taber which has been their home since. It might be mentioned that the elder Vyborny was one of the founders of Taber and its first mayor. He had been in business in Taber during the early years and spent the remaining years with his wife on the old homestead near Taber. He died on July 1, 1908, and his wife followed him to the great beyond two years later.

Mr. Vyborny was born on June 4, 1849 in Rasovnice, Bohemia and was united in marriage to Miss Josephine Charvat on April 12, 1885, establishing their home on the Vyborny homestead. Mrs. Vyborny was born in Chlatterice, Bohemia, on March 14, 1866. The Charvat family consisting of the parents and grandfather, Mrs. Vyborny and two sons, Anton (died 25 years ago), and Frank (on the old homestead south of Taber), came to this country in 1874 locating in New York. Ten years later the family moved to this state, Mrs. Vyborny's father buying the farm half a mile south of Taber of Joe Wampel, where they made their permanent home.

Both the elder Vybornys and Charvats lived to a ripe old age: Grandpa Vyborny at his death was 59 years of age; grandma Vyborny 44; grandpa Charvat, 52 and grandma Charvat 50 years.

It will be noted that the subjects of this sketch belong to the very early pioneers of this section, having gone thru the privation and hard times of the pioneer days. They have many recollections of happy days and also days of sorrow. But they have been fortunate indeed to have been spared to the time when they might celebrate their golden wedding day surrounded by their loving and appreciative children and grandchildren, relatives and friends. They may look back upon their married life thru the entire fifty years with satisfaction and in truth say that they have lived and found life good and worth while. Perhaps the happy occasion was clouded with the thought that certain faces were missing. There were twelve children in the Vyborny family, five of which died between the ages of one and four years. Also the departed sisters of Mr. Vyborny: Mrs. Joe Tefel, whose husband lives in Ashland, Va.; Mrs. Louise Chladek, and Mrs. Anna Wilka. Another of its sisters, Mrs. Josephine Stank, resides in Tupper, N. Dak. Mrs. Chladek's husband, Alois Chladek, was a member of the first expedition to these parts in 1862 for the purpose of founding Bohemian colony. He died three years ago.

The children who arranged for the happy day are: Josephine (Mrs. J. A. Fekas); Helen (Mrs. Frank Pesek); Marie of Omaha; Joseph; Elizabeth (Mrs. Albert Soukanda); George and Emma at home.

Guests given were: Mr. and Mrs. John Chalupka and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vyborny and son Leslie, of baseball (Miss); Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chladek of Tyndale; W. W. French and daughter Louise Jeannette at Tarkenton; Frank Pisek, of Scotland.