

OBITUARY

Death came suddenly from a heart attack to George Henry Wythorne on Monday at 12:45 p. m. March 17 at Long Beach, Cal., where he and Mrs. Wythorne were spending the winter.

George, son of Joseph W. and Nancy Wythorne, was born Sept. 1, 1871, near Lyle. On Feb. 25, 1902, he was united in marriage to Christine Springer of St. Ansgar, Iowa.

The remains were brought back from the West and taken to Austin where services were conducted by Rev. Swenson at the World's funeral home, Monday afternoon. The body was placed in the vault, and later will be interred in Woodbury cemetery.

He was preceded in death by his father, mother, three brothers and a sister. Besides his wife, he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. W. E. Waugh of Bloomer, Wis., Mrs. Emma Berg and Mrs. Bert Hobbs of Lyle; three brothers, Charley and Walter of Lyle, and Arthur of Starbuck, Minn.

We cannot say and will not say
That he is dead—he is just away.
With a cherry smile and a wave of the hand

He has wandered into another land.
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers
there.

And you, oh you who are left to grieve

For the old time step and the glad return.

Think of him still as the same. I say.
He is not dead—he is just away.

Just one by one, the steps we take
Just one by one, the glories wake.

As on we go, nearer and nearer
To the setting sun, and know this
Whatever is, "God's Will be Done."

I wish to express my thanks and sincere appreciation to all who assisted me after the death of my husband, those who sent donations for charitable institutions, for floral tributes, and all other gifts. To our relatives, friends and neighbors whose kind deeds will never be forgotten, thank you.

Mrs. George Wythorne
