MRS. H. J. WYBORNEY RITES AT WILBUR

(By Our Correspondent)

DELRIO—Our community was deeply saddened to hear of the death of our friend and neighbor, Mrs. Henry J. Wyborney, who passed away in Seattle on Tuesday evening, June 13, after an illness of ten months. Mrs. Wyborney lived in this vicinity for thirty-five years—and leaves a host of friends to mourn her passing. She was always interested in educational work and community activities, having taught school for several years.

Carrie Fry was born in Wisconsin in 1886, and moved with her parents to Washington in 1904. She was married to Henry Wyborney in 1908, since which time they have lived at the home south six miles north of Delrio.

Surviving are her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Clyde Rigney of Delrio; two sons, Dr. Eugene of San Diego, California, and Vernon of Memphis, Tennessee; and one grandson, Donald Rigney; her mother, Mrs. Mary Fry of Puyallup; one brother, Jake Fry of Stockton, California; and seven sisters, Mrs. Joe Botska of Bridgeport, Mrs. Jack Scott of Tonasket, Mrs. Beverly Jones of Oakland, California, Mrs. John Peterson of San Diego, California, Mrs. Julia Goff, Pawnee, Oklahoma, Mrs. Leta Downey, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Cary Millard of West Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Funeral services were held in the Community church at Wilbur, Washington, Saturday, June 17, at 2:30 p.m. with a large gathering of friends and relatives present.

Interment in the Wilbur cemetery.
